RNL welcomes Bruce DeJong as Senior Associate in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, CA, November 10, 2010 – RNL, a global, full-service design firm, is pleased to welcome Bruce DeJong, AIA, LEED AP, as Senior Associate and Senior Project Manager. A registered architect with more than 40 years of experience, DeJong joins RNL as a key project manager/project liaison for the firm's work in the Middle East and China.

DeJong's experience, most recently as Vice President of Design & Planning at KEO International Consultants in Kuwait, make him uniquely qualified to successfully manage the design process cross-culturally, achieving positive outcomes for clients and project stakeholders. He focuses on improving project management, quality assurance and production processes.

Aaron Kelly, AIA, LEED AP, Associate Principal and Studio Lead for RNL's Los Angeles office said, "Bruce's accomplishments in leading multi-disciplined teams and managing large, complex projects with a variety of delivery methods is the result of a strong technical background and a clear focus on the client. His skills will serve RNL and our clients well."

DeJong is an active member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA), the Urban Land Institute (ULI) and Los Angeles Headquarters Association (LAHQ), an organization established in 1965 that is committed to maintaining and growing businesses in the greater Los Angeles area. A graduate of Iowa State University, DeJong lives in the Los Feliz neighborhood of Los Angeles.

RNL is a global, full-service design firm specializing in sustainable, integrated design. Founded in 1956, RNL offers a continuum of design services, including architecture, interior design, landscape architecture, urban design and planning. RNL is headquartered in Denver with offices in Los Angeles, Phoenix and Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates.
