RNL DESIGN ANNOUNCES STAFF PROMOTIONS AND ADDITIONS

Los Angeles, California, March 28, 2005 – Edward Carfagno, AIA, has been promoted to Associate Principal from Senior Associate. Ed joined RNL in 2004 with more than thirty years of architectural project management experience. Ed's domestic and international experience managing large, complex projects strengthens RNL's capacity to provide both design excellence and highly responsive professional service to both public and private clients. Ed's current projects include the new 53,000 square foot RAD/MTA Bus Maintenance Facility in West Los Angeles and the new 105,000 square foot Fontana Central Library.

Lissy Ziesing, AIA, has been promoted to Senior Associate from Associate. Lissy has more than 25 years of experience including eight years with RNL where she has taken a leadership role in interior architecture and in project management. Lissy is the project manager for the new 34,000 square foot Los Angeles Valley Bureau Headquarters and Traffic Division project.

Kim Valino has joined RNL Design as Architectural Specialist. Kim has more than 27 years of experience both domestically and internationally. His experience includes commercial and retail mixed-use projects, multi-family residential, institutional and master planning. Victoria Dolsen joins RNL as Project Coordinator. Victoria is currently working on the Fontana Library project. Also joining RNL is Ed Hoagland as architectural intern. Ed comes to RNL from ASI Design, a design/builder specializing in custom structures.

RNL Design is an integrated full service architectural firm with offices in Los Angeles, Denver and Phoenix, serving clients locally, nationally and internationally. Since its inception in 1956, RNL has built its practice providing innovative design solutions to clients, surpassing their expectations and bringing ideas to life. RNL offers clients a continuum of design services, including architecture, interior design, landscape architecture, urban design and planning, and engineering.
