RNL ADDS NEW STAFF IN DENVER

Denver, Colorado, December 18, 2007—RNL is pleased to announce the following additions to its Denver office: Scott Dergance, AIA, LEED AP, joins RNL's architecture studio as senior project designer. Dergance brings extensive experience in hospitality, museum, mixed-use high-rise and international projects. He comes to RNL from Fentress Architects and is working on the Biqi Lane project in Changzhou, China and the Luxe Hills Resort Hotel in Chengdu, China.

Melanie Tang, AIA, joins RNL as senior project architect. Tang's previous experience includes multi-family, commercial and education projects. She has her master's degree in architecture from the University of Houston and her bachelor's degree in industrial design from the University of Illinois. She is currently working on the Great Gulf Towers project at 14th and Lawrence.

Louise Lee joins RNL's urban design and landscape architecture studio as urban designer. Lee recently completed her master's degree in urban design from the University of Melbourne. Also joining RNL's urban design and landscape architecture studio are Akiko Okabe as 3-D graphic designer and Brian Nicholson as landscape architect. Nicholson has a master's degree in landscape architecture from the University of Colorado at Denver and specializes in mixed-use urban infill projects. Michael Robichaud joins RNL's architecture studio as architectural intern. In other staffing news, Tricia Lawler, PE passed the Professional Engineer exam and Philip Macey, AIA, LEED AP, passed the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design exam, becoming RNL's 62nd LEED accredited professional on staff.
