RNL ANNOUNCES NEW STAFF ADDITIONS

Phoenix, Arizona, June 29, 2006 – RNL announces the following staff additions in its Phoenix office: Amber Davis joins the firm's interior design studio as interior designer. Davis has more than five years experience designing civic, institutional, and corporate projects. Davis is currently working on a 70,000 square foot remodel for University Physicians Healthcare, an interior design project for Primary Payment Systems, and the East Valley Bus Maintenance Facility. Andrew Woodhouse, LEED AP, joins RNL's architectural studio as architectural intern. Woodhouse has three years of industry experience and is a recent graduate of Arizona State University. He is working on the Glendale Community College North project.

In other staffing news, Beth Brett successfully completed the architectural registration exam to become a licensed architect.

RNL is an integrated full service architectural firm with offices in Phoenix, Denver and Los Angeles, serving clients locally, nationally and internationally. Celebrating its 50th year in 2006, RNL continues providing inspired and innovative design solutions to clients. RNL offers clients a continuum of design services, including architecture, interior design, landscape architecture, urban design and planning, and engineering.
