RNL ANNOUNCES NEW 2004 OFFICERS

DENVER, CO -- RNL Design announced the promotions of the following associates:

Alan Ely, P.E., senior associate, leads the MEP engineering efforts of the firm. Ely has 14 years of experience in management and design for electrical engineering systems, including commercial and industrial projects. Commercial projects include mixed-use buildings, tenant improvements, churches, data centers, lodging facilities, offices, detention and treatment facilities and athletic and recreational facilities. Industrial projects include water and wastewater treatment facilities and water and wastewater pumping facilities.

Angela Cowgill, associate, joined RNL in 1996 as a project architect. She brings a wealth of project experience with corporate and high tech clients. Cowhill has also worked closely with several of the firm's larger corporate clients providing outstanding customer service and reliability by fostering long-term service relationships.

Ronald Izzo, associate, joined RNL in 1998 and is a designer and project coordinator. Izzo has exceptional design talent and has taken a leadership role on many of the firm's projects.

Jason Mitchell, P.E., associate, is a mechanical engineer skilled in heating, ventilating, plumbing and air conditioning design. Since joining the firm, Mitchell has worked on a variety of commercial, corporate and public projects.

Jenifer O'Brien, associate, joined RNL in 1996 as a project coordinator in the Interior Design studio, serving both coordination and designer roles. With a focus on the design of corporate offices for financial and technical clients, O'Brien also has significant bank design experience.

Bradley Schmidt, associate, joined the firm 1996 and brings more than 11 years of architectural experience to each project team. He has served as an experienced project designer and coordinator on a variety of projects, including numerous recent, large church projects. Brad's expertise includes design, document production and construction administration.

Kaycee Vickers, senior associate, joined RNL in 1994 as an interior designer. With over 15 years of experience in project management, programming, space planning, interior design, furniture specification, client presentations, finish consulting and specification, and inventory control, Vickers plays a leadership role on many of the firm's continuing service relationships with major clients.

RNL Design is an integrated, full service architectural firm with offices in Denver, Phoenix and Los Angeles, serving clients locally, nationally and internationally.
